We consider the needs of vulnerable customers when designing and reviewing our products and services to ensure these are identified and addressed appropriately. Our Vulnerable Customer and Financial Abuse Policy sets out our guiding principles in relation to vulnerable customers:

- The Society will have procedures in place to make sure our colleagues understand the needs of vulnerable customers.
- The Society will make sure colleagues have the skills and capability to identify, record and manage customers in vulnerable circumstances.
- The Society will consider customers throughout its design and implementation of products and services.
- The Society puts customers at the heart of the service it provides and will ensure customers in vulnerable circumstances receive services at least as good as customers who aren't.
- The Society will give consideration to communicating with customers in vulnerable circumstances.
- The Society will monitor and evaluate how well it supports customers in vulnerable circumstances.

Intermediaries should continue to comply with your obligations to ensure that you treat customers in vulnerable circumstances fairly and record any specific needs related to customer vulnerability as part of the application process.

Please contact us if you need any further information about how we support the needs of all our customers in relation to the product.

5. Our assessment of value

Our Fair Value Assessment Framework sets out the holistic assessment process we use to ensure our products deliver fair value to customers within identified target markets.

The reviews completed in line with this Framework are presented to the Conduct Risk & Customer Review Group, allowing for challenge and further investigation before we share the summary of our assessment with you.

Our fair value assessment has considered the following:

Benefits	Price	Costs	Limitations
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The range of features that the products provide, the quality of the products, the level of customer service that is provided and any other features that the products may offer.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The interest rates, fees and charges customers pay for the products, comparable market rates, advice fees paid to intermediaries and non-financial costs associated with operating the products.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The cost of funding the products and other costs involved in manufacturing the products.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Any limitations on the scope and service we provide or the features of the product.

Results of our assessment

Our assessment concluded that our Residential Purchase products deliver fair value for customers in identified target markets where prices, fees, charges and wider terms are reasonable based on the overall benefits customers can expect to receive through the product and the level of service provided.
